Hello Monica,

I am sending you this email to update Council Member Cumbo on the progress the College has made in redressing what occurred during the NYC Community Board 9 meeting on April 30, 2019.

The Disciplinary Process

The College has scheduled a disciplinary hearing for Friday, May 10, 2019 at 9:30 AM in Room 307 at 1637 Bedford Avenue in Brooklyn. The student has the ability to request that the hearing be open to the public. The Chair of the disciplinary committee may decide to keep the hearing closed to the public.

The College will provide documentary and witness testimony and witness affidavits evidencing Ms. Fletcher's April 30th behavior.

Here is a link to Article XV of the City University of New York's By-Laws on the student code of conduct: <https://policy.cuny.edu/bylaws/article-xv/>. Ms. Fletcher could receive the following sanctions:

- A. Admonition. An oral statement to the offender that he has violated university rules.
- B. Warning. Notice to the offender, orally or in writing, that continuation or repetition of the wrongful conduct, within a period of time stated in the warning, may cause far more severe disciplinary action.
- C. Censure. Written reprimand for violation of specified regulation, including the possibility of more severe disciplinary sanction in the event of conviction for the violation of any University regulation within a period stated in the letter of reprimand.
- D. Disciplinary Probation. Exclusion from participation in privileges or extracurricular University activities as set forth in the notice of disciplinary probation for a specified period of time.
- E. Restitution. Reimbursement for damage to or misappropriation of property. Reimbursement may take the form of appropriate service to repair or otherwise compensate for damages.
- F. Suspension. Exclusion from classes and other privileges or activities as set forth in the notice of suspension for a definite period of time.
- G. Expulsion. Termination of student status for an indefinite period. The conditions of readmission, if any is permitted, shall be stated in the order of expulsion.

Thank you,
